

I simply cannot understand why the FCC is so against competition in this industry. The ability to broadcast free speech is becoming increasingly concentrated in just a few large entities - thanks to recent FCC policies. I purchased satellite radio because of this. Now this is intolerable to Bush cronies.